

Designer Water Announces Addition of New Employee

Designer Water, the personalized labeled bottled water company located in Arlington, Texas is proud to announce the addition to their staff of Austin Puckett.

Arlington, TX (PRWEB) June 3, 2006 -- Designer Water, the personalized labeled bottled water company located in Arlington, Texas is proud to announce the addition to their staff of Austin Puckett. Austin will be entering the management training program for Designer Water. He will be learning and executing all aspects of production and delivery as well as training to learn the sales process of the company.

Austin is a recent graduate from the University of Oklahoma. He received his B.B.A. from the Price Business College in Entrepreneurship and Venture Management with minors in Finance and Economics. He owned and ran his own business through his undergrad and worked at a mortgage company where he earned the title Senior Mortgage Consultant. He has relocated to the Dallas/Fort Worth area for this position and had the following to say, "I'm very excited about working for Designer Water. This is a great young company that is very nimble, growing fast and in a great industry. I'm proud to be part of a company that is new, ethical and focused on helping other businesses succeed, right here in the heart of Texas".

Since opening their doors on March 1, 2006, Designer Water is flourishing in their venture of private label bottled water. Their niche in the world of customized water is that they will fill orders as small as one case or as large as a semi-truck load. The main goal of Designer Water is to offer each and every customer the highest quality products and services.

Designer Water also offers all customers the opportunity to either create their own custom label design or the ability to utilize their on-site graphic designer. For a reasonable one-time fee of $95, the graphic designer will work with the customer to personalize the creative design of each label order.

After the label is designed and approved by the customer, Designer Water will print, produce and deliver the order within 5 business days anywhere within the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.

Orders can also be processed by Designer Water for customers outside of the Metroplex area. Shipping rates can be quoted to potential customers based on weight and distance.
